4666666666666 Not a Knock Kneed Journal

A subscriber writes a friendly word of praise to THE PURITAN, and adds this friendly warning: Do not allow our beautiful journal to become the usual time, knock kneed feminine periodical, with its regulation "Mother, Home, and Heaven" talk, and the inecitable recipes for pies, doughnuts, and cookies. But take an impersonal view of the many questions that affect the women of today, and let us have stories, electhes, and essays written to interest That is just what we want to do-to interest women of intellect and refinement; for in America that is equivalent to interesting the great mass of the feminine population.

has always gone on the theory that the American gentlewoman did not need to be approached as if she were feeble minded, or ignorant of the rudimentary laws of conduct. Two of the subjects to which our correspondent objects are so well exploited in other periodicals that we have not felt it necessary to increase the inane mass of literary "goo"; but Home-that is quite another thing.
